

How will I pay for my education?

We offer many ways to help you pay for your education.

Graduate Assistant Opportunities

If you are interested in an assistantship please review the following information carefully. Please make sure to read through the position description(s) and send all appropriate information to the address listed. The deadlines to apply vary, although most interviews will take place in mid-March. Some phone interviews and alternative dates for interviews may be arranged through the office offering the position.

There are many assistantship positions offered through the Division of Student Affairs at SU. Position listings for next year were posted on the Human Resource website starting on December 15. If you are interested in an assistantship offered through the Division of Student Affairs, please go to <http://www.sujobopps.com> and search for positions by job category "Graduate/Research/Teaching Assistant." The deadline to apply for GA positions through the Division of Student Affairs is generally February 1st, and interviews will often be scheduled at the beginning of March. Prospective applicants are encouraged to visit <http://students.syr.edu> for more information on the Division of Student Affairs and the application process for graduate student positions within various units in the Division.

Office of Financial Aid

We strongly advise all of our master's applicants to apply for financial support, including federal loans and work study, through the Syracuse University Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships.

Syracuse University Alumni Scholarships

If you graduated from any degree program at Syracuse University in the past five years, you may be eligible for the Graduate Student Tuition Scholarship, covering 33% of your tuition costs.

Other (Non SU) Scholarship information web-sites

www.CollegeBoard.com click - 'For Students', followed by 'Scholarship Search'.