CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT

Students at Syracuse University are expected to conduct themselves in a manner supportive of the educational mission of the institution. Integrity, respect for the person and property of others, and a commitment to intellectual and personal growth in a diverse population are values deemed fundamental to membership in this University community.

Syracuse considers the following behavior, or attempts thereof, by any student, or student organization, whether acting alone or with any other persons, to violate the Code of Student Conduct:

1) Physical harm, or threat of physical harm to any person or persons, including but not limited to: assault, sexual abuse or other forms of physical abuse.

2) Harassment, whether physical or verbal, oral or written, which is beyond the bounds of protected free speech, directed at a specific individual(s), easily construed as “fighting words”, and likely to cause an immediate breach of the peace.

3) Conduct which threatens the mental health, physical health, or safety of any person or persons including but not limited to: hazing, drug or alcohol abuse, and other forms of destructive behavior.

4) Academic dishonesty, including but not limited to: plagiarism and cheating, and other forms of academic misconduct, for example; misuse of academic resources or facilities; misuse of computer software, data, equipment, or networks.

5) Intentional disruption or obstruction of lawful activities of the university or its members including their exercise of the right to assemble and to peacefully protest.

6) Theft or damage to personal or university property or services and illegal possession or use of the same.

7) Forgery, alteration, fabrication or misuse of identification cards, records, grades, diplomas, University documents, or misrepresentation of any kind to a University office or official.

8) Unauthorized entry, use, or occupation of University facilities that are locked, closed or otherwise restricted as to use.

9) Disorderly conduct including but not limited to: public intoxication, lewd, indecent, or obscene behavior, libel, slander, and illegal gambling.

10) Illegal purchase, use, possession or distribution of alcohol, drugs or controlled substances.

11) Failure to comply with the lawful directives of the University officials who are performing the duties of their office, especially as they are related to maintenance of safety or security.

12) Unauthorized possession or use of firearms, explosive devices, fireworks, dangerous or illegal weapons or hazardous materials.

13) Interference with or misuse of fire alarms, blue lights, elevators or other safety and security equipment or programs.

14) Violation of any federal, state, or local law which has a negative impact on the well-being of Syracuse University or its individual members.

15) Violation of University policies, rules, or regulations that are published in the Student Handbook, or any other official University publications or agreements.

Culpability is not diminished for acts in violation of this Code that are committed in ignorance of the Code, or under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs, or improper use of controlled substances.

Office of Academic and Student Services

The Office of Academic and Student Services for the School of Education is located at 111 Waverly Avenue, Suite 230. The professional staff members in this office attend to many details regarding your graduate study. They maintain records of your progress, provide and process required forms, respond to inquiries regarding graduation and certification requirements, and facilitate your efforts in many ways. It is important to know how the office is organized, so that you can contact the appropriate person when you need assistance.

Amie Redmond • amredmon@syr.edu • 443-2506
Assistant Dean for Academic and Student Services

Contact Amie if you have a problem, issue, or concern that requires a higher level of authority, or a confidential matter to discuss.

Carol Dewitt • cedewitt@syr.edu • 443-2506
Assistant to the Assistant Dean

Contact Carol if you would like to meet with the Assistant Dean.

Pam Hachey • pkhachey@syr.edu • 443-2526
Assistant Director of Academic Advising

Contact Pam if your last name begins with A-K to discuss graduation requirements and documentation needed to certify your advanced degree.

Carol Radin • cvradin@syr.edu • 443-9320
Assistant Director of Academic Advising

Contact Carol if your last name begins with L-Z or discuss graduation requirements and documentation needed to certify your advanced degree.

Crystal Ross • crross@syr.edu • 443-9319
Office Coordinator/Receptionist

Contact Crystal if you have questions about where to locate forms or how to fill them out. Make an appointment with Crystal to take the Child Health, Life and Safety Seminar exam.

Linda DeFrees • ladefree@syr.edu • 443-4759
Coordinator of Career Services and Certification

Contact Linda for a resume and cover letter review and to start your credential file for prospective employers. Linda can answer your questions regarding the New York State teacher certification process and will offer fingerprinting services. She will assist you with your job search.

Laurie Deyo • ldeyo@syr.edu • 443-2505
Graduate Admissions Recruiter

Contact Laurie if you would like information on or would like to apply to graduate school at SOE.

Zachary Schuster • zmschust@syr.edu • 443-4269
Undergraduate Admissions Recruiter

Contact Zachary for information on undergraduate admissions.

Make an appointment to meet with your academic advisor at least six months before your expected graduation date to make sure you are on track to graduate.
GENERAL INFORMATION

This Orange Book provides a general overview of Syracuse University’s School of Education and its degree programs leading to the M.S. degree. Further university policy on degree study exists in the publication, Syracuse University Bulletin: Graduate Course Catalog, available online at http://coursecatalog.syr.edu/. It is important that you familiarize yourself with both of these documents. Although respective School of Education program areas have their own specific degree requirements, there are many commonalities addressed in the Orange Book. You will find updated information on the School of Education web site.

The School of Education is composed of seven academic departments: Counseling and Human Services; Cultural Foundations of Education; Health and Exercise Science; Higher Education; Instructional Design, Development and Evaluation; Reading and Language Arts; and Teaching and Leadership. Each department is headed by a chairperson who is also a faculty member in that academic area. To get the most benefit from your time here, you should acquaint yourself with professors, students, and staff in areas other than your own.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION COMMITTEES

The School of Education hosts a number of committees that serve a variety of functions. Many include student representation. All committees welcome input from students regarding the tasks in which they are involved. In addition to these committees, special task groups are also formed throughout the year to address specific issues or problems.

Committee on Promotions and Tenure – serves as the governance body for the School of Education in matters of promotion and tenure.

Committee on Degrees and the Curriculum – meets regularly to review new programs and courses as well as proposed changes and additions to existing courses. The Committee also may study problems related to curriculum as these are presented to the Committee or initiated by it.

Committee on Policies, Standards, and Scholarships – meets when called upon to establish policies on admissions and scholastic standing, including student appeals and disciplinary matters against students. This committee is charged with creating processes for the review of scholarship applications.

Committee on Diversity – charged with reviewing initiatives to advance the School’s mission regarding diversity; serves as a resource for faculty, staff, and students regarding issues and opportunities of diversity in the School; and serves as a liaison between the School and other diversity initiatives at the University.

Looking for a quiet place to study or a cup of cocoa or coffee? The Office of Academic and Student Services welcomes you to their suite of offices.
Requirements

1. At least a Bachelor’s degree. An official, degree-bearing transcript from the institution where you received your Bachelor’s degree should have been included with your application materials and should be on file with the Office of Academic and Student Services. If you were still an undergraduate student when you applied to the C.A.S. program, it’s very likely that the transcript we have on file is not degree bearing. You must verify that we have the appropriate transcript in order to graduate.

2. A minimum of 60 graduate credit hours for completion, generally. At least 30 credit hours must be in the area of professional specialization; 9 to 21 credit hours may be from outside the field of specialization and the balance may be comprised of graduate course work selected in consultation with your academic advisor.

3. Complete a field project report.

4. A six-hour qualifying examination in the area of specialization.

5. A field competency requirement to be determined by their program.

The Certificate of Advanced Studies (C.A.S.) offers greater scope, depth, and thoroughness of preparation than the Master’s degree, but is a program distinct from doctoral study. Its purpose is to provide the additional specialization necessary for certification as superintendents of schools, school district business leaders, principals, school counselors, subject matter specialists, and directors of various educational services. The Certificate is viewed as a final, or terminal degree rather than an intermediate award between the Master’s and the Doctorate.

The Cultural Foundations of Education Department offers a Certificate of Advanced Study in Disability Studies (15 credit hours). The C.A.S. in Disability Studies is available to students enrolled in any Syracuse University graduate program as well as to applicants who wish to pursue the C.A.S as a single course of study.

The Instructional Design, Development, and Evaluation Department offers three Certificate of Advanced Study programs in Educational Technology (15 credits), Professional Practice in Educational Technology (24 credits), and Lifelong Learning and Continuing Education (24 credits). These programs are designed for students who require additional knowledge and expertise in order to advance in their professional careers.

Consult your faculty advisor and/or chair of your program area regarding specific courses required for your particular area of study.

Procedures for the C.A.S. Degree

1. File a C.A.S. Program of Study form with the Office of Academic and Student Services. The courses listed on your Program of Study must match your transcript. This form must be signed by your faculty advisor and must be submitted prior to completion of 45 credit hours of the total program. If you intend to transfer a Master’s degree from an institution other than Syracuse University, the Program of Study form must be submitted prior to the completion of the first 12 credit hours taken at Syracuse University. An official degree-bearing transcript from the other institution is required to have the credits transferred to your program here.

2. Complete the Field Project. The culminating report will usually consist of information gathered from internships or one or more field projects developed in conjunction with a special course or seminar conducted for this purpose, or under the supervision of the academic program advisor. A memo from the project advisor serves as notification that the requirement has been completed. If you are conducting research involving human subjects, you must file an Institutional Review Board (IRB) application and receive IRB approval to conduct the study. IRB information and forms are available at: http://orip.syr.edu.
Transfer Credit

If individual graduate level courses from other institutions are to be transferred to your program, official transcripts from each institution will need to be on file with the Office of Academic and Student Services. Graduate credit hours to be transferred from other colleges or universities must be approved by your faculty advisor. The actual transfer of credit hours will not occur until an official C.A.S. Program of Study form is submitted and an official transcript from the prior institution is received. Students must have received a grade of B or better in order for the credit hours to be transferred. Courses that issue nontraditional grades such as P or S will not transfer. Previously completed coursework must be transferred prior to the completion of the first 12 credit hours of study at Syracuse University.

In compliance with New York State Department of Education regulations, SU only awards transfer credit for courses that are an integral part of an SU degree program, as determined by the appropriate SU academic unit. At the graduate level, schools/colleges and departments may assess and accept credit

- earned at another regionally accredited graduate school in the United States;
- earned in a course in which the grade earned was at least a B. Coursework completed on a pass/fail basis is not eligible for transfer, unless approved by both the academic unit dean and the Dean of the Graduate School; and
- is an integral part of the degree program, and must be evaluated and approved by the academic department and the Graduate School.

Counting Credits Towards Multiple Degrees and/or Programs

NYSED limits the counting of credits toward multiple degrees and/or programs to protect the academic integrity of each degree and/or program. When a student is counting credits towards multiple degrees and/or programs, the following restrictions apply:

1. If you are counting credits towards multiple degrees and/or programs in the same or closely related field(s) and the coursework makes up an integral part of the degrees and/or programs, course credit may be double counted to fulfill degree requirements.

2. In no instance shall course credit be counted more than twice in satisfaction of the requirements for multiple degrees and/or programs.

3. In order to earn two or more distinct Master's degrees or a Master's and doctoral degree, you must earn a minimum of 80 percent of the combined total of SU credits normally required for each of the degrees. Two 30-credit Master's degrees will not be awarded for fewer than 51 credits, nor will three 30-credit Master's degrees be awarded for fewer than 75 credits. Credits counted toward two or more distinct Master's degrees must form an integral part of each degree. You must be admitted to the degree program in each of the awarding academic units.

4. Certificates of Advanced Study (C.A.S.) (excluding programs registered as preparing individuals for a teaching certificate, educational leadership certificate, or a professional license issued by the State Education Department). C.A.S. programs may be part of an existing degree program or a stand-alone program of study. In cases in which two or more C.A.S.s are to be earned by one student, the minimum number of credits earned by the student must be at least 80 percent of the combined total of SU credits required for each certificate. However, two 12-credit C.A.S.s may not be awarded for less than 21 credits. In cases where the C.A.S. curriculum is part of another degree program, and you are admitted to that other degree program, credit may be double counted for the C.A.S. and other degree, subject to the above restrictions.

Note: These restrictions do not apply to joint/dual programs with the College of Law or the Master of Philosophy degrees.

SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry and SU concurrent study: SU and SUNY ESF have agreements that encourage concurrent master’s study in environmental science and forestry with SU degree work in public communications, law, management, public administration, and certain education programs. Other SU fields may also qualify. Contact your school/college, the Graduate School and SUNY ESF for specific requirements and procedures regarding concurrent degree work.
3. File an application for the qualifying exam. The time and date of the exam are agreed upon with your faculty advisor. The application should be submitted to the office of Academic and Student Services no later than two weeks before the exam. Satisfactory completion of the exam is reported in a memo sent by the faculty advisor to the Office of Academic and Student Services.

4. Submit a Diploma Request. The diploma request must be filed before your last semester. It is submitted online at MySlice.syr.edu. You must be an active student to file a diploma request in MySlice.syr.edu. The Diploma Request is used for four purposes: to enter your name for an anticipated degree date; to provide an audit of your academic program information; to allow you to indicate special instructions for mailing and imprinting your diploma; and to insure your receipt of commencement information. Diplomas are mailed approximately eight weeks after your degree is certified. Be certain to provide an address that will be valid at that time.

Continuous Registration Requirement

You must be continuously registered at Syracuse University during each Fall and Spring semester. If you are not registering for course work, register for GRD 998, Degree in Progress for 0 credit hours. You can register online during the registration period for that semester. A Student Activity fee will be billed to your student account at the Bursar’s Office. To petition to waive the Activity Fee, contact the President of the Graduate Student Organization located in the Schine Student Center.

Students will be charged a $500 fee when they register for the 5th semester of GRD 998, and beyond. For the first 4 semesters during the coursework phase of a graduate degree, the fee will be waived. This fee, charged upon enrollment of the 5th semester, indicates continuing engagement in a graduate program; it recognizes the continuing use of faculty, staff, and institutional resources, even during periods when courses are not being taken. It is designed to encourage students to enroll in courses on a continuous basis so that they complete their degree programs expeditiously. Finally, it maintains the student’s active status in the program.

If circumstances are such that students have to register for GRD 998 for an extended period of time, students must take a leave of absence. A leave of absence permits extension of the time to complete your degree a maximum of one year.

Applying for Teacher Certification

New York State Teacher Certification

Certification is NOT automatic. Anyone seeking certification must apply on the NYSED TEACH web site.

Institutional Recommendation

Institutional recommendation is based on the applicant completing a state-approved degree program. All of C.A.S. programs at the Syracuse University School of Education qualify as state-approved degree programs; therefore, Syracuse University can recommend you for certification when you have completed a program that leads to New York State certification. In order to qualify for institutional recommendation, you must apply within two years of completing your degree program at SU; otherwise, you should pursue an alternate route to certification. In addition to completing an approved program, certification exams are required. You can visit the New York State Certification Exam web site for more information.

- Students who complete a master’s degree in an approved teacher preparation program at Syracuse
University (which includes student teaching, a practicum, or an internship), and the Child Health and Life Safety exam are eligible for Syracuse University’s recommendation in that certification area. The Certification Coordinator will assist you with the online certification application process.

- Students who are presently certified in New York State and complete a master’s degree leading to professional or a new initial certification are eligible for Syracuse University’s recommendation. The Certification Coordinator will assist you with the TEACH online certification application process.

Types of Certificates Issued by New York State for SBL & SDL Certifications

Initial Certification (SBL only)
- Is the first New York State certificate and is effective for 5 years from the issuance date.
- Complete School of Education approved Educational Leadership program.
- Pass New York State SBL exams.
- Complete fingerprinting process at least 2 months prior to graduation.
- Candidates should apply for this certification within 2 years of graduation to be eligible for School of Education’s recommendation.

Professional Certification (SBL & SDL)
- Must be earned before initial certificate expires.
- Requires completion of professional development through school district employer.

Checklist of steps to file for New York State Certification
- Successfully pass the required New York State SBL and SDL Certification exams. Test dates, registration and preparation guides are available at www.nystce.nesinc.com.

- Apply for fingerprinting clearance at the Office of Academic and Student Services at least 2 months before graduation.
- Meet with an advisor in the Office of Academic and Student Services to confirm that all degree requirements will be completed.
- Apply for certification through NYSED TEACH Online Services.

Recommendation for Certification
- Online certification recommendation will be completed once award date is posted on transcript (typically 4-6 weeks after graduation).

Provisional/Permanent Certification for School Counseling Program
Those with provisional (not initial) teaching certifications must meet the permanent (not professional) certification requirements.

Certification in Other States
Although New York State has reciprocity with many other states, it is best to contact the Department of Education in the other states directly for certification information. Each state will have its own certification requirements, which may include examinations and/or additional course work.

More information regarding certification in other states is available at: http://certificationmap.com.

If the out-of-state certification application requires Syracuse University to complete an institutional recommendation section, send it with written instructions (indicating where to return the form, once completed) to the Certification Coordinator in the Office of Academic and Student Services.

We can give this recommendation only after the applicant has completed Syracuse University’s approved program degree requirements.

For Certification questions or assistance, or to open a credential file, contact the Coordinator of Career Services and Certification in the Office of Academic and Student Services.
INSTITUTIONAL REVIEW BOARD (IRB)

Public Law 93-348 (1974) requires that all research projects involving human subjects be reviewed by a properly constituted institutional review board. At Syracuse University this is known as the Institutional Review Board (IRB). Students and faculty are required to submit copies of any research proposal that involves human subjects to the Institutional Review Board for review unless the research has been found by the IRB to be exempt from review. Review and approval by the IRB must occur before research can begin. IRB forms may be acquired from and submitted to the IRB Office, 121 Bowne Hall.

Required forms, deadlines, updated policies and procedures, and additional resources can be found at: http://orip.syr.edu.

SELECTED SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY AND SCHOOL OF EDUCATION POLICY STATEMENTS

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

As a member of the School of Education and of the Syracuse University community, you are expected to show exceptional integrity in your academic work and to adhere to University-wide academic integrity standards and policies. The University’s Academic Integrity Office (AIO) oversees academic integrity policy and mandates procedures and sanctions when violations have occurred. Actions constituting violations arise in situations involving the use of sources (plagiarism), course work and research, communications with instructors, and representation and materials misuse. Examples of violations include giving or receiving aid in an exam or where otherwise prohibited, fraud, plagiarism, the falsification or forgery or any record, dishonesty in requests for make-up exams and deadlines for papers, or any other deceptive act in connection with academic work. As a student here, you must take responsibility for understanding the nature of academic integrity. You can refer to http://academicintegrity.syr.edu for links to the policies. And, as always, be conscientious about your work. Take credit for work that you have done, allow others to take credit for their work, do not take ideas and work without giving credit, and do not cheat. In any situation where someone else is trying to compromise your integrity, use your own judgment and conscience.

NONCONSENSUAL SEXUAL ACTIVITY AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Syracuse University is committed to maintaining an environment free from all exploitation and intimidation. The University will not tolerate rape, sexual assault, sexual harassment, or other forms of nonconsensual sexual activity. Nonconsensual sexual activity includes the following:

- Any form of nonconsensual sexual intercourse committed against the will of the victim. The type of force used may involve physical violence, coercion, threat of harm, or intimidation, actual or implied. Sexual intercourse can involve oral, anal or vaginal penetration.

- Any actual or attempted nonconsensual sexual activity, including attempted intercourse, sexual touching, exhibitionism, or sexual language of a threatening nature.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION ACADEMIC DISMISSAL POLICIES FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

The School of Education requires that all graduate students achieve a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 (4.0 scale) in order to graduate. If at any time the student’s cumulative GPA falls below 2.8, the student’s matriculated status may be cancelled by the Graduate School upon recommendation of the student’s academic program.

Additional requirements are stated in the School of Education’s Orange Books and in program and departmental documents. Failure to meet these requirements also constitutes grounds for dismissal from a program of study. Reasons for dismissal include, but are not limited to: failure to pass master’s comprehensives or doctoral qualifying examinations; failure to develop appropriate professional skills and dispositions; failure to meet program and professional standards of practice; academic dishonesty and other forms of professional misconduct. At or before matriculation, individual programs will notify students of the program specific requirements they must meet to remain in good academic standing.
When a student is judged not to have met the university, school, or program requirements, the department chair will notify the student in writing of this determination and the recommendation of dismissal from his or her program. A copy of this notice will be sent to the Assistant Dean for Academic Services. If no appeal of the dismissal is lodged within one month, the dismissal will be communicated to the Graduate School.

[Note: Violations of the Syracuse University Student Code of Conduct may also result in program dismissal under certain conditions: “Failure to comply with sanctions that are imposed by the University Judicial System, or with specific conditions related to the safety and security of any persons or property while a case is pending, will result in immediate, indefinite suspension or expulsion from the University without benefit of further process.” See Student Code of Conduct and Judicial Sanctions. Students should also consult the University’s Academic Integrity Policy.

Appeal Procedures for Program Dismissals

Students have the right to appeal a decision to dismiss them from their academic programs. The appeal must be initiated in writing within a month after the dismissal decision. The written document should describe the basis for the appeal and the remedies sought.

The written appeal should be directed to the Assistant Dean for Academic and Student Services. The Assistant Dean will transmit the appeal to the School of Education’s Policies, Standards, and Scholarships Committee. The Committee will forward a copy of the appeal to the student’s department. The Committee, or a subcommittee of it consisting of at least three tenured faculty members, will constitute the appeal panel. The appeal panel will make every effort to hear the appeal within a month of the Committee’s receiving the written appeal. However, the timing of the appeal or its circumstances may require a longer period of investigation.

The appeal panel will not question the requirements the program has set nor will it substitute its own judgment for the judgment of the program faculty about whether the student has met those requirements. Valid grounds for appeal arise if the program fails to provide or implement uniform and consistent requirements, or bases an assessment on other than the stated criteria. Thus, the appeal panel will consider whether the student was provided with “accurate and plainly stated information relating to maintenance of acceptable academic standing,” as required by the University Student Handbook, and whether the program applied those requirements, and only those requirements, in making its decision.

Students have the right to be accompanied by an advisor from the Syracuse University academic community during the hearing. While the student may consult the advisor, the student him or herself must present the case and respond to the appeal panel’s questions.

If a student’s grounds for the appeal concern issues of disability or other forms of diversity, the student may ask a member of any university support unit to review the case file and act as a consultant to the appeal panel.

The decision of the appeal panel is final.

Approved by the School of Education Assembly, on April 27, 2012.
